Anastasia Tronoski Joins Park Sutton Advisors

New York, NY - May 4, 2017 – Park Sutton Advisors, a leading investment banking boutique in New York with expertise in the financial services industry, announced today the appointment of Anastasia M. Tronoski as Managing Director, joining Co-Founders Steven Levitt and Jaime Carvallo. Ms. Tronoski will be responsible for business development and advising clients on mergers and acquisitions, capital raising, and other strategic assignments.

“I have known Annie for 18 years and worked closely with her in the past; Jaime and I are delighted to welcome her to Park Sutton Advisors,” said Co-Founder Steve Levitt. “She brings deep transactional experience to complement our expertise in the financial services space, and her extensive relationships and comprehensive industry knowledge enhance our ability to provide clients with unmatched advice.”

Ms. Tronoski is a 25-year veteran of the asset management industry having worked both directly and through advising on investment banking assignments. Her experience includes working with global, diversified money managers, banks and insurance companies, institutional and retail investment managers, as well as high net worth managers and family offices.

Prior to joining Park Sutton Advisors, Ms. Tronoski worked at Putnam Lovell Securities and then at de Guardiola Advisors, where she led strategic and transactional assignments in the asset management industry. In addition to her investment banking duties, she was responsible for junior staff and recruiting at each of those firms. Ms. Tronoski began her career at SEI Investments as an Account Executive in the Pension Consulting & Investment Advisory Divisions.

“I am pleased to join the highly-accomplished team at Park Sutton, especially at a time when the asset management industry has such diverse and exciting changes ahead,” said Ms. Tronoski. “It is terrific to be reunited with Steve and a privilege to join this firm in its dedication to detailed industry expertise, unparalleled financial analytics, and an ability to negotiate complex transactions without compromising client focus.”

During her tenure in investment banking, Ms. Tronoski completed transactions including INVESCO's purchase of Pell, Rudman, the sale of Carlson Investment Management to Skandia Life, the sale of Pilgrim Capital Corporation to Reliastar Financial, and Virtus (Phoenix) Investment Partners' purchase of the Zweig Funds. Ms. Tronoski received her Masters of Business Administration in Finance from the University of Virginia's Darden School and her Bachelors of Science in Finance from Lehigh University.
